

Alan Mark Sisco

December 24, 1961 - September 4, 2018

Alan Mark Sisco.

He was a father, He was a grandfather, He was a brother, He was a son, and to most everyone who crossed his path: a friend. Alan was born December 24th 1961 in Jackson, Mississippi to loving mother and father Hollis and Maude Sisco. From a young age Alan had a very innovative mind and put his creativity to good use as an artist sculpting animals, architecture, weaved baskets, and bowls. Alan eventually married and fathered five daughters, Love Marie, Grace Glory, Goldie Petra, Sabbath Day, and Olive Pearl whom he dedicated his life to raising. Alan just recently became a grandfather to Oliver Ace Miller, Goldie Petra's son. Alan was diagnosed with late staged carcinoma in early July, he passed away in his home surrounded by his loved ones on September 4th 2018 in Gulf Shores, Alabama his self-proclaimed paradise.

Spring Hill Home, Health, and Hospice cared for Alan in his last days as a very generous act of charity. They paid for his medical equipment and medications as well as visiting him every day. They were on call twenty-four hours, seven days a week for anything he needed, even a question.

Lagoon Baptist Church were also incredibly charitable by donating a plot in their private cemetery to Alan. Alan's last wishes were to be buried in this particular cemetery and Lagoon Baptist made that wish become a reality.

If you would like to return their generosity on behalf of Alan to Lagoon Baptist or Spring Hill Hospice, you can donate:

“ I remember having a tea party and your dad kept bringing food out. He was always so nice and funny. He’s in a better place now. I’ll cherish all the memories I had with him. Me and Sabbath and Olive and Him all went hiking one day and it was a wonderful day. R.I.P.
