“ Dear Family of Allen. I am a cousin of Allen. When I was 16 years old and Allen was 4 years old I babysat for Allen and cooked meals so Aunt Ruth and Edgar could go out and harvest their grain. In those days harvesting meant cutting the grain with a binder which would make bundles. The bundles then had to be shocked which meant setting about 5 or 6 bundles up, leaning against each other so the bundles and grain in them would dry until a threshing machine with 4 or more wagons and horses then would come to thresh out the grain and make a large big straw pile to be used for cows and other things.

I thought Allen was the sweetest, best looking and best dressed little 4 yr. old there ever was. Ardella Gross Ardellagross@gmail.com
