“ My son Aj was my partner in crime, he would always be there for me when i was sad or sick.he cooked hot dogs for me and his sister Lily when i wasn't able to cook. He was a very smart and loving young man had a heart of gold. He had an imagination that you wouldn't believe. At one time he thought we had 500 gray hounds that he helped take care of. But sad to say we never did,lol...Aj had a way to make anyone smile.i love my little man and he is going to be terribled miss😭 R.I.P. my son i love you very much

“ We extend our deepest sympathies to Andy’s family and friends. We didn’t know Andy but he worked on a relative’s house. We heard so many good things about this young man. He was a hard worker and very outgoing and friendly. God bless all of you.

“ Theres a hole in all of our hearts right now. You were a breeze of fresh air on cloudy days and always made your family laugh with the craziest stuff you wanted to share. Im not sure Chandler would have enjoyed a family vacation without you taking him in the way you did and making him your buddy. You were so soft and gentle with all your younger cousins. You always made me feel like I was really your Aunt before it was official. Its hard for one person to describe you and who you were, because you were so many things to each person. We all got a different piece of you that was just for us. I hope you know how much you are loved by the ones left behind. And I hope even more that youre surrounded by such beauty and love in Heaven that it makes you feel whole.

“ Aj was the most loving boy you would have ever met. He had a heart of gold and would give you the shirt off his back. Twenty years old and full of life and love and such a free spirit. He was so smart, he had an imagination like you wouldn't believe and he could take a part and rebuild just about anything. He was so determined to go fishing he built himself a home-made trailer to attach behind his bike to pull his kayak. He loved to fish, although he would never eat them. His major hobby in life was riding his bicycle, and boy could he go forever. Most of the time he could be spotted around town riding his bike. His dream was to ride his bike around the world to see just how far he could get. He had the best personality and sense of humor. He could make any one laugh with the faces he made or the words he came up with and the crazy dance moves he would do. He loved his family with all his heart, and he will be greatly missed.
