“ Sincere condolences to Family and friends. I've known Tony since the early mid 1980's. So many memories of a young hard headed hard working guy. We worked together for 15 years or so and remained distant friends since. Cancer sucks brother. I hate that it took you so young. I hope you have found what you hoped to find in the afterlife you were so faithful for. Peace brother Tony.

God is our purpose and it is him who gives us life to live for him. It is never how we begin our journey but how we finish. Every race has it obstacles and paths to choose. Choosing God's way is not only the wise choice, but the greatest comfort, reward and honor we can ever be given.
