

Bartlett Lewis Sr

December 3, 2025

Bartlett “Bart” Tully Lewis Sr., 66, of Orange Beach, Alabama, passed away on December 3, 2025. He was born on November 18, 1959.

Bart lived a life marked by generosity, warmth, and an unwavering willingness to be there for anyone who needed him. A true renaissance man and jack of all trades, he was a gifted chef who trained in pastry at Le Cordon Bleu in Paris. He also earned his MBA and, over the years, became a pilot, a captain, and a realtor—continually seeking new skills, adventures, and experiences. He loved being out on the water, traveling the world, and soaking in the beauty of life with a genuine appreciation that inspired those around him.

He cherished time spent with those he loved and lived life on his own terms. His memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

Bart is survived by his two sons, Bartlett “Bart” Lewis Jr. and Denton Lewis, and his brothers, Parnell Lewis and Martin Lewis. He was preceded in death by his parents, Helen Lewis and Parnell Lewis.

A private cremation will take place. A celebration of life will be held at OSO at Bear Point Harbor in Orange Beach on January 10th.
