“ My heart is heavy for all of you. Aunt Dina helped form the person I am today. She taught me to appreciate the beauty of photography, and she helped me lose my fear of spiders by showing me their beauty. I lost fear of large dogs because her Great Danes were so wonderful! She was so BRAVE in the face of life altering circumstances beyond her control. I love her very much, and even though I did not stay in the South, I never forgot her. It was so great to see her on FB, and to be able to just say things like Happy Birthday. I am so sad for all of you. My deepest condolences to you all.
