“ My memory of Miss Sue was the first day I met her. I found out that even though we were quite a few yrs apart in age, we had a lot in common. Miss Sue NEVER had a problem telling it like it is, and for that I loved her. But her warm and generous heart was something that is hard to find these days. I'm gonna miss our talks. She helped me more than anyone when my dad passed in May. Thank you Miss Sue. You will truly be missed, but ALWAYS fondly remembered for your honesty and loving, giving, and awesomely wonderful soul! I love you and miss you!

“ You taught me so much in life I would not even know where to begin. You taught me to love without conditions. You taught me to forgive and to leave it in the past where it belongs. You taught me that my kids always come first. You also taught me to respect others and to treat everyone the same way I wanted to be treated. To get respect you have to give respect. I love you Mom I will carry these lessons always in my heart. I have taught my children these same lessons in life.

“ *My Nan was the best!! She was always so caring for others. She was always straight forward and if you made her mad she would tell you, but she also forgave quickly. She was also so funny and loved to laugh. I may not have always seen eye to eye with her, but I always knew that she loved me no matter what and I love her. I miss the song she made up to get me , my brother Stoney and sister Amanda to stop asking for things when she went to the store when we were little. She called it the I want, but you can't have song and would even dance around while singing it. I remember all the times I spent going to bingo with her and our trip to the boats. She spent too much money and when we got home my aunt Gracie was so mad. I miss them both so much but I know they are in heaven together looking down over everyone. I love you Nanny and I will see you one day when I get to the other side! R.I.P. **you are my sunshine** <3 <3 <3*

“ I didn't get to spend much time with my sweet aunt, but I did get to write back & forth with her through Facebook. She told me much about her love for her immediate & extended family, just the same. I especially loved hearing all her stories of Grace. I know she & Grace are so happy to be reunited. I know they will both be looking down smiling & wishing us all blessings on all of our days. For those of us left here in mourning, I'm praying for peace & the comfort.

“ Sue was a generous and open hearted woman. She shared all that she had, and opened her heart and home to many. Her children and grandchildren are a wonderful reflection of how she lived her life: with tremendous humor, love, faith, hard work and acceptance. She made life better for those lucky enough to know her and will be sorely missed. rest in peace.

“ Momma was one of the most wonderful women I have ever known. I am very proud to say that I am her son. She had taught me so much. She taught me to forgive someone no matter what they have done but to never forget. She did her best every year to keep the Christmas Angel Program going and every year she helped over 100 families in Baldwin County. She would be constantly at work trying to make this program a success no matter how sick she was. And the program was a very big success. Last year she was so sick she couldn't hardly see or walk straight and she still got up and went to set up and she still made sure every single family was taken care of and then some. My mom has been a great inspiration in my life. She also taught me to never give up on something that I really want. She always told me that if I gave up, then I never really wanted it. I love you momma.
