“ Bill was born in Ringgold, LA., in 1934. His Father worked for the Government and was transferred to Michigan, where Bill grew up. He was in the National Guard and later studied to become a plumber-pipefitter and welder. He became disabled in 1991 and was retired. He would vacation in the south in the winter and later settled in Lillian, Alabama.

Sorry for your loss Joan and family. Grateful I was able to meet my father in prior years. Wish I would have known him more. And Joan thank you for being so kind. Rhonda Billips (Hubbard)
