“ I had the pleasure of getting to know this sweet soul over the past 8 years. Brian and I met at his Grandma Rose's church in the fall of 2012. We bonded over the Elton John song Gone to Shiloh on a family Sunday at church when he overheard me mention it to my cousin. So he questioned me about it and then after the family Sunday dinner on the ground, he played and sang that song for me. After I moved away, we remained in contact eventually becoming close through music and our faith in Jesus. When times got rough for him, I sent him mail to encourage him and artwork to brighten up his day. When I was having a rough time, he was my shoulder allowing me to vent and be vulnerable. Brian was such a sweetheart and my very best friend. I feel so blessed to have know this talented, beautiful soul. Sending all of my prayers hugs and love to his wonderful family. Words cannot express how sorry I am for your loss.

“ Brian was a very talented and loving individual. It had been awhile since I'd seen him, but he was always a sweet face to see here at the library. His unique presence will be greatly missed!
