

Bruce Kenneth White

April 11, 1955 - March 13, 2020

Bruce Kenneth White, age 64, of Gulf Shores, Alabama passed peacefully March 12, 2020 at Thomas Hospital in Fairhope, Alabama. Born April 11, 1955 in Port Arthur, Texas, Bruce was raised in Bay Minette, Alabama.

Bruce is survived by his daughter Kennedy White of Foley, Alabama, granddaughter Ellie White of Foley, Alabama, sister Tammy Campbell of Spring Hill, Florida, niece Ashley Campbell of Spring Hill, Florida, aunts Dorothy Norman of Greenville, Alabama, Nell Peacock of Spanish Fort, Alabama, Sheila Gordon of Spanish Fort, Alabama, Dorothy White of Bay Minette, Alabama, uncles Kenneth White of Fairhope, Alabama, Larry White of Bay Minette, Alabama and a multitude of cousins and precious friends whom he considered his family as well. He was preceded in death by his father Donald White (Judy) of Bay Minette, Alabama, mother Willi Mae Thames of Spring Hill, Florida, one uncle Jerry White of Bay Minette, Alabama and grandparents Chester and Florence White of Bay Minette.

Bruce was an avid sports fan, which was very apparent in the manner which he lived his life. As a young man, he coached young boys in Bay Minette Baseball League and Allstars. His love for sports continued throughout his life as he was a baseball and softball umpire for more than 30 years. Bruce was a die-hard Alabama fan and enjoyed watching the games with his friends. He also loved his dog Speedo, spending time at the beach, cookouts and pool parties with his friends and playdates with his granddaughter Ellie.

In light of the restrictions imposed on public gatherings due to COVID-19, the celebration of life service will be scheduled at a later date. Memorial donations may be made to Jerry Wright Memorial Scholarship Fund, 1209 Bradley Avenue, Bay Minette, Alabama 36507.

Arrangements are entrusted to Cason Funeral Service in Foley Alabama
