“ *Carla was my hairstylist for many years. In fact, she had just cut my hair the last week of her life. Her life personified beauty, grace, courage, love and inspiration like no other. She not only made me look beautiful, she made me feel beautiful. In my grief, I feel so fortunate and blessed to have had the opportunity of having her as a friend as well as my talented hairstylist. She spoke often of her beautiful family. Please know my thoughts are with and pray God will give you the same strength and courage that He gave Carla as you continue life without her. “ I remember walking in her Carla's salon about 12 years ago and being so excited to see somebody from home! (Opelika) she was so sweet and kind as we reminisced. Always had such a beautiful spirit and smile.

Prayers going up for Clint and family.

Sincerely, Elizabeth McEachern Ballard.

“ Never have I ever seen a more beautiful person than Carla. I became her client when I moved to Foley over a year ago and I count that a real blessing. To say she was beautiful on the inside and outside is an understatement. She encouraged us more than we encouraged her. My prayers are with your family.
