

Carmen Potts

November 23, 2025

Carmen Potts, Beloved child of Jehovah, Wife, Mother & Daughter has fallen asleep and is peacefully waiting for her resurrection into a new world. One without pain, suffering and death.

A native of Puerto Rico, she was fiercely proud of her heritage. Carmen loved to travel, always up for an adventure. Her greatest adventure lasted her 75 years. Far too short but is now at rest.

Carmen spent her life serving others. She was an educator for, as she would proudly proclaim to anyone she met, 50 years. She was an advocate for anyone that encountered any type of injustice, especially for her foreign speaking students and their families.

Carmen would befriend and talk with anyone she met. She loved to impart her knowledge of Jehovah and all her passionate interests. A force to be reckoned with.

Carmen will be sorely missed by her family. We love you Carmen Aida Potts.

Job 14:14-15 If a man dies, can he live again? I will wait all the days of my compulsory service Until my relief comes. You will call and I will answer you.

“ I am so sad to hear these news. I worked with Carmen at Foley Elem. and she motivated me to become an ESL teacher. I am also a Boricua (Puerto Rican) like she was and we connected from the moment we met each other. She had a heart for the Hispanic community and inspired many. Praying for your family. She was loved by many.

“ I'm so very sorry for the loss of Carmen. I worked with her for many years and I saw first hand what a dedicated educator she was. She loved her students and her family very much. May God grant her peace and may He grant you all the grace to go on without her.

I was sad to hear about our sweet friend Mrs. Potts passing away. I also was honored to work with her she loved the Hispanic families and the wonderful kids she inspired. She always took an extra mile in everything she did for anyone who needed her. I learned so much from her and she was an awesome cook her food was amazing. She was a blessing in my life she will be deeply missed. Love Lucy Cunningham
