“ We know you are in the loving arms of our Lord, and in that we can take comfort. You were the rock for many people, and filling the huge hole that you have left in the hearts and lives of your family and friends will be difficult. But we know you will forever be there helping from above, and with God’s help the solace and comfort will come, as we all have a new angel in our lives. RIP Curt. 🙏🏻 ☩

“ Curtis was a special person and an important cog in my success at Woodam High School. Few know that Curtis could have been an excellent QB but at the time we had so many great athletes at that position that his best contribution was at DB. That wasn't because he was not the best prospect at QB but because he could contribute more to the team on defense. He understood and made the transition without missing a beat! I will always remember his devotion to the team effort and will never forget what he did for us and me! Don Sharpe

“ Curtis Jr. Was always a fun loving child, he was always teasing his older sisters, for a long time he was the only boy in the family with 3 sisters. In July, 1975 that came to a screeching halt, he became the big brother to a little boy. He ran all over the neighborhood telling them he had a little brother. He now had someone on his side. He was a good baseball player, and also loved football. He played baseball and football at the age of 6 years and played through the 12th grade. He was on the team who won the state championship for Woodham High School in 1982. Football was his favorite sport. He was an ardent fan of the Crimson Tide of Alabama. He was able to watch the Tide as they played for the championship this year. Only death can separate us son for awhile, because joy comes in the morning. We will miss you until, we meet again. Love Mom.

“ I am so blessed to have had you as a big brother Curt. I will cherish all the fun and wonderful memories we shared together....playing SPUD in the front yard until all hours of the evening, living in the only house in the neighborhood without grass because everyone was playing in the yard, listening for dad’s whistle to let us know it was time to come home, you peeling my oranges because I couldn’t, You protecting me from bullies, countless hours at the ball fields while you practiced baseball and football, selling countless raffle tickets around the neighborhood for you, playing kickball in the Speed’s backyard, riding in the backseat of our family car (trying to get the diesel trucks to honk, playing slaps [I think my hands are still red], name that tune [that was so much fun] , pointing your finger saying “ I am not touching you” just to aggravate me), throwing the football, standing in as catcher while you practiced pitching (now that was scary—you pitched fast and hard), going to your high school football games and celebrating when your team won the state championship game (I was so proud of you), all the girls that wanted to be my friend and come over to the house because they wanted to see my cute brother (ok that one was a little annoying), family cook outs and bon fires, watching Alabama football games, crawfish boils (your favorite) , floundering from dad’s boat, you coming to the hospital when my children were born, never telling me that I was a tag along, neighborhood block parties and just hanging out laughing!!! Most of the very best part of my life included you, my brother. Thank you for sharing your life with me.....Thoughts of you truly brings a smile to my face 😊 and joy to my heart ❤️ . I love you Curt and I know I will see you again! That is a promise from our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. So I will just say “see you later”. Your little sister

“ I am so blessed to have had you for a big brother. I will cherish all the memories you so lovingly created for me.....playing slaps, playing spud in the front yard until all hours of the evening, fireworks on the 4th and New Year’s Eve, riding in the back seat of the family car (getting truck drivers to honk, playing games, name that tune and of course just plain aggravating me “I’m Not touching you!), spending countless hours at your football and baseball practices, throwing the football and being your catcher while you pitched in the front yard, kick ball in the Speed’s backyard, watching your high school football games (I was so proud of you), neighborhood block parties, all the girls that wanted to hang out with me and come over just because they thought you were cute....ok that part was annoying!, Alabama football games, family cook outs and bon fires, riding horses, rodeos, and just hanging out together! I will cherish all of these memories forever. I will miss you so much my big brother.....our loss is Heaven’s gain! I am sure you already have them laughing.😂. I love you!!🥰 so long for now!
