It is with heavy hearts, we announce the passing of Cynthia Yvonne (Alexander) Coppock. She was 59 years young and an Anniston, Alabama native. She departed this world on May 28, 2024 with her devoted husband, Mike, by her side.

Cindy, as her loved ones knew her, was a loving Wife, Mother, and Grammy. She loved the simple pleasures of life, like drinking coffee on the porch early in the morning or taking a walk on the beach.

Her grandchildren were the lights of her life and made her feel incredibly proud.

Cindy was preceded in death by her parents, Ralph and Gladys Alexander. She is survived by her son, Andrew Ferguson, and daughter Ashley O'Dell (Cody); Along with her 3 grandchildren, Abram, Ada Lu, and Aila Mae O'Dell. There will be a private celebration of life held, as per her request.

The Tide Recedes
by M. D. Hughes

The tide recedes,
But leaves behind
Bright seashells on the sand.

The sun goes down,
But gentle warmth
Still lingers on the land.

The music stops,
And yet it echoes on
In sweet refrains;
For every joy that passes,
Something beautiful remains
