

Daisy Luster

March 28, 2016

Daisy Faye Luster

Born January 7, 1937

In Shelby County, Alabama

Ms. Luster was a long time resident of Mobile, Alabama.

She grew up with four brothers and three sisters; Al Roach, Bunk roach, Jack Roach, Buddy Roach, Eloise Garrett, Mary Whitefield, and Geraldine Glass. Her parents were Harry and Eva Roach.

Ms. Luster is survived by her for sons;

Danny (Patty) Woodson, Cantonment, Florida;

Carl Jr. (Cathy) Caver, Irvington, Alabama;

Patrick (Christina) Caver, Green County, Mississippi;

And Bryan (Karen) Caver, Theodore, Alabama;

One Sister Geraldine (Bobby) Glass, Union, Mississippi.

She has 21 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

She is preceded by her parents, Harry and Eva Roach, her brothers, her sisters, Mary Whitefield, and Eloise Garrett.

Her only daughter Donna Montoya, and granddaughter, Sharlene Woodson.

Her number one love was her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She loved to sell fresh produce down at the Farmer Market on Halls Mill Road. She was known, as the Peach Queen at the Market. She never met a stranger, and could sell anything. She was loved by all. She had many friends, but the one she loved to talk to everyday, was Ms. Dennis.