Daniel J. Farrell

November 17, 1948 - March 19, 2025

Daniel “Dan” James Farrell, 76, died on March 19, 2025 with his family at his side. Dan was a lifelong resident of the Manchester, NH area and recently retired to Gulf Shores, Alabama.

He was born on November 17, 1948 and was the eldest child of Mildred “Bunny” Farrell and Henry “Chic” Farrell. He was a graduate of Bishop Brady High School in Manchester, NH. Before his retirement, Dan spent many years as an auto parts branch manager and later transitioned into medical billing. In his younger years, Dan was an accomplished guitarist, touring with several different rock bands along the east coast. Dan was a classic rock enthusiast and very much enjoyed tv and movies. He also enjoyed trivia, had a passion as a home chef, and was a world traveller, with Ireland and Cabo San Lucas among his favorite places to visit.

Dan is survived by his wife and best friend of forty-five years, Denise L. Farrell of Manchester, NH and his daughter, Michelle L. Pasha of Gulf Shores, AL;

sisters, Mary Farrell of Bow, NH, and Maureen Farrell of Prescott Valley, AZ;

eight grandchildren, Brittany, Tyler, Kaylila, Courtney, Jackson, Sarah, Ahmed, and Kaden; his sister-in-law, Diane Dore and her husband, Ray Dore and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his parents, his youngest sister, Jane Farrell, and his daughter, Diane M. Littlewood (Vanasse).

A memorial celebration of Dan's life will be held at a later date and location to be determined
