Daniel spent most of his childhood in Mobile, AL before moving to Robertsdale for high school. The rest of his life was spent raising children, fishing, and doing concrete work. He enjoyed football season immensely and getting together for cook outs with his friends. After his retirement from the concrete business, he maintained a lawn business part time and took care of many people in need. Daniel will be missed by many loved ones, friends, and acquaintances.

a Celebration of Life Service will be held at Rosinton Community Church on Sat Dec 2nd at 10am.

“ Daniel and I became friends in 8th grade at Robertsdale High School. He was at our home so much that my mother just set an extra plate for him! He said I was the sister he never had (he was surrounded by boys in his family). After high school, we stayed in touch off and on over the years and the past twelve or so years we had reconnected and talked frequently and saw each other occasionally. I'm going to miss him, his quirky take on things, his love for the Arkansas Razorbacks (never understood that!), and his updates on everyone in his universe. I'm sure he is regaling everyone in heaven with his stories. Prayers for all of his family 🙏.

“ *Daniel and I became cousins when his grandmother Dorothy married my grandfather Anderberg almost seventy years ago. Daniel was always a good cousin, a good classmate, a good friend; a good man. Daniel promised he would hug all our relations when he got to heaven.
Rest in Peace. Rise in Glory. Daniel Pierce*
