Diane spent her life loving the Lord and serving Him in many local churches as a children's choir director and Sunday school teacher, however her biggest joy in life were her children and grandchildren. She was a loving and selfless mother and grammy.

She is survived by her children, Bill (Lucretia) Davis, Deborah Davis, Kristin Bedsole, Shannon (Kurt) Miller, twelve grandchildren, six great grandchildren, her brothers, Jeffrey (Diane) Kellam and Steve (Annette) Mazza along with a host of family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William DeWayne Davis.

The family would like to extend a special thanks to Dr. Steven Wittmer and Kindred hospice RNCM, Melissa White, Pastor Marvin Allison and social worker Wendi Vergos for the compassion and kindness they bestowed on our family.

A small celebration of life service will be scheduled at a later date. Arrangements are entrusted to Cason Funeral Service Foley AL.

“ Her last visit over we had dinner and watched a movie. She loved laughing and watching our crazy kids and loving on them. She gave me the biggest hug before she left. I wish I could hug her one more time..

“ We never got off the phone without her saying to me “I love you. Kiss my babies for me.” Her grandchildren were her life. Every time Kurt and I had a baby she would visit us in the hospital, hold our new baby and tell us “thank you”. I always laughed and said “thanks? you know we had him/her for us!” And while we both knew that, I knew how much each one of our kids brought her joy.

“ She was a very sweet lady and always made a point to speak to me in the pharmacy at Walmart. She will be missed.
