Edward Earl Johnson

October 16 1934 to May 17 2026

Edward was born in Irondale, Alabama and resided in Gulf Shores, Alabama since the 1980's.

Ed was happiest on his equipment reshaping the land, building golf courses, parks and roads or traveling the western mountains.

He entertained many people with his outrageous stories and quick wit.

There was none like him and will be none after.

He was survived by his beloved wife of 30 years Elizabeth Blaylock Johnson and three daughters: Peggy Connell, Brenda Cook and Barbara Schilan plus numerous grands.

He was preceded in death by parents Jesse Mathew and Cora Lee Johnson, his daughter Deborah Bradford, brother Thomas Johnson and sister Mary Alice Momon.

Ed professed his thankfulness to our Lord Jesus everyday. We know heaven is a livelier place with him there.

A private memorial service will be at a later date.
