“ Your mama was so precious to me growing up. I am so glad I reached out to have you pass along that info to her before she passed. I know your life is forever changed and the world feels like it's shrinking around you, but please know she's with you and you've always been the light of her life, Cathy. You were her greatest love.

“ So many memories. I will miss our long talks and texts late at night. We go way back. We lost touch for a while, but we could always catch right back up. I will always remember our friendship and all our good times. I will miss you and will see you again💕.

“ My dear sweet best friend of 37 years! What will I do without you? We raised our daughters together and saw each other through all the ups and downs. Our long conversations, just like two sisters giggling, laughing and crying. Girls weekends and family vacations, I will miss you so much. I know Beth is sure I will be there to love and support Bill, Cathy, Tony and her sweet grand babies!! All my love and we will be together again someday! Laura Brown
