

Elizabeth M Inge

February 8, 2023

Battles Wharf, AL - Elizabeth Meador Inge, affectionately known as Ippy, age 85, died peacefully in her home at Battles Wharf on February 8, 2023. She was a lifelong resident of Mobile and Baldwin counties, and took delight in the wonders and marvels of bay living from the blazing sunsets to the joy of jubilees. She was the essence of elegance and grace, bearing an unrivaled trove of talent which she graciously shared with love and without pretense. She loved to entertain and anyone who had a seat at her table knows the unforgettable way in which she made a multi-course cordon bleu meal materialize in a seemingly effortless manner. She dedicated her time and gifts generously to others and shared the bounty of her garden and kitchen with enthusiasm. Her love and knowledge of flowers was endless. She truly lived her life with zest, beauty, and flair all the way to the end.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Ruth Powell and William M. Meador, husband William B. Inge, Jr. and siblings Mary M. Kell, John D. "Jack" Meador, William M. "Billy" Meador, and Robert L. Meador. She is survived by her brother, James P. "Jimbo" Meador and children Kathryn M. Kearley, Laura M. Nelson, William Meador Inge, William B. Inge, III, Bradley S. Inge, and Richard C. Inge and 12 grandchildren.

A commemorative firing of the family cannon has announced her death along with the scattering of ashes into her beloved bay from the skiff she loved. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, Mobile Baykeeper, or Wounded Warrior Project.

Tribute Wall

RI

“ oh golly...I have SO MANY memories of Miss Ippy. I loved watching her and Mr. B when they used to fish for speckled trout amongst the ruins of a neighboring wharf. I LOVED the smell of her kitchen as she never cut any corners when frying fish or making gumbo. I will miss her.

---

ritchie - February 16, 2023 at 12:48 PM

K(

I just learned of Ippy's passing. We were the best of Friends thru High School. So many Memories I have of those Teenage Years. I was close to Mrs. Meador and knew all the Family. We are both fortunate to have lived so long.

---

Kathryn Dill Hughes (Kaky) - July 20, 2023 at 06:44 PM