“ My angel, life is still so empty since losing you , Ricky and Dad. I try hard to enjoy any moment possible, but it's really a struggle. I miss you and think of all of our precious memories we shared. I will always love and miss you until we are together again, my beautiful daughter.

“ My precious angel. Today we would be celebrating your 36th birthday. I miss you so very much . There is an empty place that belongs to my darling daughter. I'm hanging on the best I can without you ricky and daddy. Michael and Lisa check on me daily and invite me to their homes more than I am able to go, but they're trying so hard to keep me a part of their lives. Until we are together again, I love you so very much my beautiful gift straight from God.

“ My precious angel, today we would be celebrating your 35th birthday. This special day was absolutely a beautiful day when your dad, sister, two brothers and me welcomed you into our world. You truly were the most angelic baby that was ever born and continued to be throughout your short time here on earth with all of us who knew and adored you. I miss you so very much but I know you have never left my side. Hold on to Dad and Ricky and you three don't ever forget how greatly you are loved. I will always love you and cherish the time we had together until I am with you my angel!

“ As we near Christmas morning I remember all of our times with you and how I cherish each memory of you Ricky and you guys loving dad, my soulmate Rick. I can only hope you are all together watching over all of us left to share our memories. Sadie is here and is just what we thought she would be, beautiful and healthy and she has been greatly received by her siblings as well as all of the family. Erin my angel forever loved and missed greatly.

Hey, Nancy, I just heard about this, I wanted to say that I am so sorry for your loss. She was too young to be taken. I know I haven't spoken to you or her in about 11 years. You've always stood behind your kids no matter what, so sorry for your loss.

Thank you Amanda. She loved. and missed you Elizabeth and Joey deeply . She was diagnosed with non hodgkins lymphoma may 21 2018 but it had been growing and spreading for years prior to it being diagnosed. She fought hard to beat it but unfortunately lost the battle but I had been living with her since rick passed away from cancer as well in 2016 so thankfully I was holding her when she passed.

“ Erin was a beautiful and kind woman inside and out. I remember enjoying our Starbucks coffee dates and having deep conversations. She was so smart! I'm blessed to have had her in my life and God has gained an amazing angel.
