“ Every time I come into work and see her i would laugh cause I knew she's going to tell me about her day. She would entertain the cops in the people but the instruments is who used to bring the work and then them light up shoes with the remote she had to show me her shoes. They one truly better then the one I had got from Skechers. O was actually at Wal-Mart where she got them when I heard the news. It's killing to know she's gone. Cause I'm so use to seeing her. Laughing and carrying on. Just had fun being around her. We talk about a lot of stuff together.

“ She was always so full of life and such a happy person. She would always help anyone out that she could. I haven't always been around but I do remember how she always made me laugh and was always so good with the kids. Still can't believe she is gone

“ Erin, I remember so clearly you as a child. Your freckles so cute and a sweet 💖 of gold. You've grown up to be a beautiful young lady and wonderful Mom. My heart breaks for your babies but mostly for your Mom, my best friend. It's so hard to see her hurt so bad due to this horrible loss. You were and will forever be loved by so many. Fly high baby girl and please watch over Mel. Until we meet again, rest easy. Condolences to all of Erin's family in this time of grief. Thinking of you always, Dawn Duplesis
