Felicia Elizabeth Weimer, passed away on December 5, 2023. Felicia was born in 1946 in Rahway, New Jersey, the daughter of John Henry and Catherine Lehman. She grew up in Maryland with her parents and older brother John, now deceased.

Felicia met her husband, James Weimer, in Maryland where they both grew up, there they married in 1964. Together, they raised three children. In 1984, while in Maryland, her husband's company closed, and the decision was made to move to Pennsylvania so that James could stay with the same company.

In 1998 Felicia and James made the decision to retire and pursue their dream to travel. James retired in 1999 and Felicia quit her job as transit bus operator. Felicia and James sold their home to their son and moved into a 34-foot Airstream travel trailer. They traveled for 13 years. Together they visited 49 states and Canada, they saw The Great Circus Parade in Milwaukee, they participated in The Rose Parade in California and they visited Alaska for 64 days. Every year, they will return to Pennsylvania to visit their children and grandchildren.

After 2 years in the Airstream trailer the Weimer's bought a 40-foot motor coach. Felicia would participate in the bus drivers Rodeo, sometime winning and then going on to the state finals. Felicia always did the driving and James was the navigator.

In 2012 the Weimer's decided to settle down at Robertsdale. They still traveled in their motor home every summer.

Felicia was loving, caring, adventurous and loved by everyone. She loved sewing, quilting and making things for their grandchildren.

Felicia is survived by her husband James, her daughters Cheryl Wassum (Rising Sun, Maryland), and Amanda Johnson (Dallas, Texas); her son James Weimer (Bath, Pennsylvania), five grandchildren (Victoria Green, Nicholas Wassum, Ashley Graybeal, Brandon Weiner, Angela Weimer) and seven great grandchildren.
