

Frances K Jennings

July 3, 1941 - May 22, 2019

Frances Kay Jennings, 77 of Foley Alabama passed away May 22nd 2019 after a long illness.

Frances is survived by her husband John, her children Allen Michael Coskey, Christopher Jennings, Jacqueline Leightner and Brenda King. Her siblings Shelley (Mike) Piskun, Frank Hammer and Judy Signor.

Preceding her in death, was her daughter Tamara, son Russell, her sister Karen and her brother Gary.

Frances enjoyed serving the public and was very social. Her career suited her, on and off throughout her life and into retirement she was a waitress, a bartender, a cook, a hostess, and in retirement a door greeter at Meijer and Sam's Club in Jackson Michigan. Her friends were very special to her everywhere she worked.

Frances accomplished a life-long dream of retiring to a warm climate. In 2012 she moved to the Gulf Coast, where she lived out her remaining years in the warm Alabama sunshine, and renewed her faith as a Jehovah Witness and devoted much of her time to Field service and Watchtower studies.

Frances will be laid to rest beside her daughter in Riverside Cemetary, Albion Michigan.

There will be a memorial service at her beloved Kingdom Hall Saturday May 25th at 3Pm. 21287 CR 12 Foley Alabama

Memorial on July 3rd at 1Pm at Riverside Cemetary Albion Michigan
