“ America lost a legendary Husband/Father/Uncle/Marine on Saturday, May 30, 2020.

As a young man, you were called to serve, you showed-up, you sacrificed and luckily for us, you returned. The family knows you helped shape the world. You always told me and others you were no hero or legend, nonetheless, I tried to be you in so many ways. Now that your work here is done, as all Marines know, and 'Pappa Joe', you are no different, you are now destined for the final rally point- WARRIOR HEAVEN. Thank you for the memories, I salute you and one final request- please save me a seat.

A great father, grandfather & great grandfather. Kind and gracious, he loved his family, his garden, the San Francisco Giants (previously known as the NY Giants) and tolerated the Yankees.

He will be missed very much by family & friends who loved him. Until we meet again.
