“ So sorry to hear about my old childhood friend, Skip. We were Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. We would go to Franke park and hike and swing on vines across the creek, ice skate and sled all day (how we didn't get frost bitten I'll never know). We'd go fishing for hours and get fried in the sun. There were empty fields near Skip's house where we'd dig holes (8 feet by 8 feet by 3 feet deep), then we would cover them with tree limbs and brush, and sod. These were our "secret" forts. Some times we would walk or ride our bikes and talk all day. Skip was a true adventurer, always out to discover and try new things. May God give his family and friends peace and strength, now, and the days ahead. R.I.P. Brother Bill and Paula Bentley

“ There are no words that I could say, to let you know how great full I am to have had you in my life. Dad you have taught me so many things in my life that I will forever hold on to. I love you dad. I am lighting a candle as a promise to you that I will always be happy and never forget what you have done for me.

“ Our families grew up across the street from one another Skip and his brothers looked out for my 3 brother and myself. I always looked up to Skip. His mother made popcorn balls @ Halloween and gave us candy too. (That was a big deal then). Skip was funny, loyal, a great friend and was fun to be around The last time I saw Skip was at a Hagerman jobsite. We laughed, talked about our families and the "good ole days". I wonder if his middle name, Roy, was after my father. (Roy J Schomburg). Be proud of his Navy service. He obviously loved his country. As someone told me years ago, when you loose someone you love, all you have left are memories. Keep your memories close. I will always remember Skip.

Sincerely, Mark Schomburg

“ So sorry for your loss. May the father of tender mercies and God of all comfort and of peace be with you during this difficult time. It's certainly comforting to know that soon sickness, death and suffering will cease and our dead loved ones will be resurrected to live in a cleansed, peaceful world ~ Isaiah14:7; Revelation21:4,5 and John5:28,29.
