GARY LEMONTE "MONTE" SPRAY

Gary Lemonte "Monte" Spray, passed away on Thursday, March 28, 2019. Gary was 59 years old and was a resident of Robertsdale, Alabama. Gary passed away at his home after a short battle with Stage 3 Cancer of the liver and lungs.

Gary was born on Saturday, February 6, 1960, in Loxley, Alabama to the late Gilbert and Sonya Spray. He graduated from Robertsdale High School in Robertsdale, Alabama and also had his master's degree in engineering and computer technology which he obtained while serving his country in the US Army. Gary joined the Army at the young age of seventeen (17) and dedicated twenty

(20) years of his life to proudly serving his country in the United States Army. In 2012, Gary decided to serve his country further by going to work at Austal USA as an electrician and worked there until his final days. Gary had many, many friends (at work and home), to many to name you all, but know that Gary would have wanted each of you to know how near and dear each of you were to his heart.

Gary was of Celtic religion. His hobbies included wood working, doing mechanic work, renaissance festivals, gardening, metal working, farming, tending to his chickens and his loving dog, Dignity.

Gary is survived by his loving wife of 27 year, Mrs. Randee "Michelle" Berry, and by children, Tonya "Tony" Spray of Germany, Melissa Berry, Jessica Berry and Timothy Berry, and fourteen (14) grandchildren, brothers, Gilbert "Burt" Spray (Carolyn), Casey Spray (Tracey), and Sister Tina Bond, and numerous nieces and nephews, all of whom he loved dearly and whole-heartedly.

Gary was predeceased by his parents Gilbert and Sonya Spray and sister Tonya Spray.

A graveside service will be held in memory of Gary L. Spray at the Alabama State Veterans Memorial Cemetery, 34904 Alabama Hwy 225, Spanish Fort, Alabama 36577, on Friday, April 12, 2019 at 2:30pm.

“ Gary and his ex-wife Sharon had a roommate, Monty, and the four of us would sit up until sunrise playing canasta. We had so much fun back then.

“ I helped raise Gary when he was young. All these nephews and nieces have my heart. They grow up and have their separate lives, but you never forget their child hood. Gary was too young to give up life. He was a brilliant young man, and there wasn't any thing he couldn't do.
