“ My precious son, it's so hard to believe it has been 4 years since you left this world. I miss you each and every day, but all of the priceless memories we shared keep you close to me. I will love you baby forever and miss you more with each passing moment. Stay close to your wonderful dad and darling little sis. Never forget how important you were to our family. Until we are together again, I love you my "little buddy.”

“ It's hard to believe it has been 3 years since you left this world. I miss my precious son so much and will always cherish the times we had together. You were such a joy baby .you would be so proud of your munchkins. They're beautiful inside and out still. I love you so very much. Until we are all together again keep your dad and little sister close my darling son.

“ Today marks two years since you left this world my darling son. Words cannot express my sadness after losing two of my children and their father, my true love Rick sr. Not a day passes that you your dad and your precious little sister are thought about and missed terribly. My love will always be with you my first born my little buddy so smart and caring. Until we are all together again my ricky.

“ My precious son. I so miss you and our times with me you and Erin sitting on the porch having coffee. It is coming up on 2 years since you passed but still doesn't seem real. I hope and pray you dad and Erin are together. Erin fought hard but we just couldn't beat cancer. I will always love my little buddy that had my back from the beginning. I cherish every memory of you, your wonderful dad and precious "sis" as you so lovingly called her. Until I am with you guys, rest in peace my darling ricky.

“ I did not get to finish my post earlier , I was going to say that each time Rick came to clean the pool , my husband and I enjoyed our conversations with him because we both grew up in military families our entire lives . Rick was a great guy as far as I'm concerned, I don't believe what was said about him and I'm so sorry for your loss . I'm sure he was a great son ! To us he was a great person .. God Bless you and all of his family during this time of healing ..
