“ I am lucky to have had such a wonderful aunt. We shared such meaningful conversations about life, love, and perseverance. Your words will always hold a special place in my heart. Elizabeth was such a kind and free spirit. She had a hidden talent of making every single person feel special and loved. One minute she could be offering someone words of encouragement and the next she could be making the whole room giggle. I'll always remember her great sense of humor and her empathy for others. I hope you continue to be an eccentric, free spirit in heaven. I'm sure you'll be partying with the angels as you watch over us. You will never be forgotten. Love you forever.

“ It says share a memory, I have a rolodex of them. In every one of them she was making me and everyone else belly laugh till we cried. Her spirit was so bright it showed right through. Elizabeth and I were truly inseparable for many years, and I wouldn't had wanted it any other way. And Momma Karen was a second mom to me. Karen, Thank you for giving the world the gift of Grace (Elizabeth). We were blessed with her even for the short amount of time we had. I love you!

“ Kathy and I are heartbroken for this beautiful family. We met Grace at Mike and Karen’s wedding and followed her on fb. We continued praying for Elizabeth daily to overcome her addiction. Obviously our Lord desired to bring her home so she would be free and completely whole. Grace was always smiling making everyone around her happy! Her light is still shining bright and will never go dim!

“ I loved my sister Elizabeth dearly and wished she could have had the life she desperately wanted. She was kind, smart, fun spirited, and beautiful inside and out. Our miss our talks and fun days together laughing and hanging out having our sister time. Even with all her troubles, she was loved by all. I'll miss you baby sister. My heart will always ache for you. I love you. ❤️

I miss you my baby girl. Part of me is gone without you. You made the World a better place with your joy and beautiful smile. Your second grade teacher was right; she said God sent you down to Earth to make the World smile.....,and most certainly did.

Elizabeth Grace, I will miss your pretty face, but most of all your beauty within. How lucky was I to be a sister to your mother from another mother. The you shared with my family was genuine, we loved, you too! Prayed for your struggles to end so your Beauty could be happiness within. A piece of my heart went with you when you left this earth. I know God gave you the peace you so deserved. Leaving behind a community of family and friends that will miss you as long as we all breathe. May your soul be forever happy with those who have passes into that paradise of Heaven. Watch over your lived ones, till we meet again💜
