

Gycile Carolyn Haislip

April 12, 1938 - November 28, 2018

Gycile Carolyn Haislip, 80, a native of Sampson, AL, and resident of Foley, AL, went to be with the Lord early on Wednesday morning, November 28, 2018. She was at home and surrounded by family.

Carolyn, as she was known to her family and friends, was born April 12, 1938 in Sampson, AL, daughter of the late Doshie Jennings Alford and Lennie Cecil Alford, as the youngest of two children. She attended and was graduated from Foley High School, and shortly thereafter, met a handsome young sailor stationed at Barin Field, with whom she would share two children, and the next 50 years.

After spending many years as a “military wife” taking care of the home, she began a 37-year career outside the home with the Baldwin County Board of Education as a school bus driver. She took great pride in taking care of 3 generations of “kids” during her tenure. Everywhere she went, she was met with hugs and stories about days on the route. Due to her love of travel and her adventurous spirit, she was always packed and ready to go. She also loved bowling, going to movies and yes, even the occasional casino. However, her greatest pleasure came from taking care of her parents, husband, children, grandchildren, and most recently her first great grandchild. She was eagerly looking forward to her second great grandchild making her debut in February 2019.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her husband, Earl Haislip, her parents, her brother, Ellis Alford, and her son-in-law Tony Andres, all of who she looked forward to seeing again in the days preceding her death. She is survived by two daughters, Barbara Boller, and Cheryl Andres; two beautiful granddaughters and one grandson, Cammie Boller, Candace Nix and Michael Nix; one and a half great grand daughters, Larkin Nix and Baby Girl Nix, numerous nieces, cousins, and friends.

“ A memory we laugh about regularly, Mom going to the casino with her friend, Linda Howard, coming in at 4:30 am and accidentally pocket dialing Cammie while taking her dog out for a potty break before going to bed. When I called her the next morning to ask her when she got home I was met with a giggle and the response. “I will never tell”. I asked her how about I tell her! That when you stay out all night and don't want anyone to know... don't pocket dial your grand daughter when you get home! She loved when we told that story in her!
