

Harland B Simonds Jr

June 24, 2024

Harland Benjamin Simonds, Jr., 86 passed away at home on Saturday, June 24, 2024.

He was born August 19, 1937, to Harland Benjamin Simonds, Sr and Jeanne D. (Lallier) Simonds He was nicknamed Timer by his grandfather Benny and went by that name his whole life.

Timer grew up in Dalton, New Hampshire with a very close knit group of friends, cousins, aunts and uncles, whom he remained close to throughout his life.

He left Dalton after high school and ended up later in East Hartford, Connecticut working at Pratt Whitney. There he learned his life's trade as a machinist.

Later, he moved to Daphne, AL. After working several years in area machine shops he decided to start his own business with his son, Jeff.

S&S Machine Shop remains in operation today in Stapleton, AL and is run by son Jeff Simonds and daughter Colette (Simonds) Hudson.

He loved his family, fishing, boating, cars, motorcycles and all things with speed. He especially loved motorcycles and met many of his life long friends through years of riding.

He leaves behind his wife Doris Sexton Simonds, his son Jeff (Sherry) Simonds, his daughter Colette (Robert) Hudson, four grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held Saturday, June 29, 2024, at 12:00 at Stapleton Baptist Church, 35460 Baldwin Avenue, Stapleton AL.

In lieu of flowers the family request donations be made to:
American Macular Degeneration Foundation,
P.O. BOX 515
Northampton, MA 01061-0515.

Tribute Wall

VA

“ Timer was a special man who i remember as kind and funny. I am friends with Colette and Doris and Timer welcomed us to their Tennessee home. We had a blast ! He will never be forgotten. ”

Vicki Adams - July 03, 2024 at 11:23 AM

MT

“ Timer was a very special cousin and friend. We have many wonderful memories of trips and visits with him and Doris, often by motorhome and most involving motorcycles. We loved him and miss him dearly. ”

Marti Faulkner and Ed Tomashek - June 30, 2024 at 10:53 AM