

Howard R Jones

March 17, 2026

Howard Robert Jones joined his heavenly family in Christ on March 16, 2026, in Foley, Alabama.

Born on July 14, 1942, in Charleston, West Virginia, Howard lived a life marked by faith, service, and devotion to Jesus Christ. He graduated from South Charleston High School before enlisting in the United States Air Force, where he served with distinction as an Airman until his Honorable Discharge in 1964. Professionally, he built a successful career in heavy machinery sales in Pensacola, Florida, earning the respect of colleagues and customers alike through his integrity and tireless work ethic.

Howard was a lifelong and passionate fan of Alabama Crimson Tide football, rarely missing an opportunity to cheer on his beloved team. He was an avid collector of model trains, with a curated collection of over 150 trains proudly displayed in his “man cave”.

On December 14, 2013, Howard married the love of his life, Rebecca ("Becky") Lynn Jones. Together, they shared a joyful and devoted marriage, making their home in Foley, Alabama. Howard and Becky were faithful members of First Baptist Church of Gulf Shores, where Howard dedicated himself wholeheartedly to his faith and community. He was actively involved in the Men's Bible Study group, Life Ministry, Bible Fellowship Ministry, and performed international missionary work.

Howard leaves a legacy of selfless service to God, country, community, and family. His glowing smile, boundless enthusiasm, kindness, humility, and steadfast faith inspired all who had the privilege to know him. Howard is survived by his wife, Rebecca.

A memorial service in celebration of Howard's life will be held on Friday March 20th at 11:00 a.m. at First Baptist Church of Gulf Shores, 2200 West 1st Street, Gulf Shores, Alabama 36542. The family will receive visitors at 10:00 a.m. with the memorial service following at 11:00 a.m.
