Ingeborg T. Price

1927 – 2024

Ingeborg T. Price (Inge), born in 1927 in Germany, peacefully passed away on Monday, July 8, 2024, at the age of 96, in the home she shared with her son in Magnolia Springs, Alabama. After World War II, she courageously immigrated to the United States, where she built a life filled with love and resilience. Inge primarily lived in Tampa, FL with her husband, Robert Price, for 35 years until his passing in 2003.

Ingeborg was predeceased by her beloved husband, Robert Price, in 2003, and her cherished granddaughter, Courtney Marcher, in 2004.

She is survived by her three children: John Eldredge, Lief Wheeler (Mike), and Jeanne Smith. Ingeborg was a proud grandmother to Alden Wheeler, Corwin Wheeler, Christine Thomas (Matthew), Amber Pratt (Erik), Caleb Wheeler, Jacob Wheeler, as well as five great-grandchildren: Jessica Pratt, Dallas Rawlinson, Katelin Pratt, Rhett Thomas, and Walland Thomas.

In loving memory of Inge, we celebrate a life defined by unwavering strength, deep love for family, and unyielding determination. She was a pillar of courage and loyalty, whose spirit triumphed over countless obstacles with remarkable grit.

Even after a stroke left her mute, she continued to make her opinions known, a testament to her indomitable spirit and resilience. Ingeborg had a passion for the water and westerns, embracing life with passion and fearlessness. She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered, her spirit forever etched in our hearts
