

Isabel A Busam

August 17, 1931 - May 30, 2021

Isabel A. Busam was born August 17, 1931 to parents John and Elizabeth Poppelreuter.

Isabel was born in Detroit Michigan and graduated from Dominican High School in 1949.

She worked for Awrey Bakers and loved chocolate eclairs. The employees were allowed to eat as many as they liked. Her love affair with eclairs ended after a 25 pound weight gain.

She also worked at Bower Roller Bearing Co., where she made many friends. She met Maurice (Al) Busam at a weenie roast. They dated and were engaged when Al entered the Navy. Once home they were married in St. Matthew's church September 13, 1952. In 1958 they adopted an infant girl whom they named Diane.

Isabel was a homemaker, and an artist. She worked with oil paints and won many ribbons and sold most of her work. Isabel was a gourmet cook and was always trying out new recipes. Everyone looked forward to a meal at her house. She loved to travel and visited Hawaii, Jamaica, and many other islands on their 3 cruises.

She also loved their home in St. Helen, Michigan. After retiring they traveled from Michigan to their condo in Orange Beach for 6 months each winter. Eventually the trip became too much and they built a home in Glen Lakes where they lived until their deaths.

Isabel is survived by her Daughter Diane/Joe Palazzolo, Granddaughters

Jessica/Kyle Simmons, Courtney/Sean Kosha, Great Grandchildren Lily Simmons, Audrey Kosha, and Hattie Kosha due August 8th.
