“ Grandpa Jim was a wonderful man. He was kindhearted and had such a great sense of humor. At my wedding four years ago, the photographer snapped a photo of him which I will treasure - it captures his cheerful nature perfectly. Our family loved Grandpa Jim very much and we are so glad that he was a part of our lives.

“ Jim Bob loved his sweets just like me! So I baked cookies every Christmas and shipped them down to him. He very considerately shipped me back the empty tins!! I collected chocolate tootsie pops and sent them so he would always have a stash. With those he could show a little restraint and enjoy one a day. He had an infectious grin and an enormous heart and we loved him so. He made my mom happy for so many years, and that alone made him priceless in my eyes . Kay Hankus
