James Richard Lurwig (January 19, 1954 – September 9, 2024)

James Richard Lurwig, resident of Lillian, Alabama, went home to be with Jesus on September 9, 2024, surrounded by his family and friends. He was 70 years old. Jim became an ordained minister in April 2014 and was a lifelong farmer. He was a graduate of Foley High School.

Jim's joy for Jesus was contagious, and he, along with his wife Tami, impacted numerous lives through ministry work. They were involved in homeless ministries, the jail ministry in Foley, Alabama, the Read the Red Food Pantry, and several other outreaches. Jim was also involved with the prison ministry where he loved sharing the Word of God and leading inmates to Christ.

Jim is survived in death by his wife of 51 years, Tami Conner Lurwig, daughter Erin and her husband Kevin Jones, daughter Kristine and her husband Curtis Hickman, Jr, and four grandchildren—Kevin Jones II, Aiden Jones, Adison Jones, and Claire Elaine Hickman. He also leaves behind a brother Fred

I grewup knowing Jimmy. So many memories from our children on Soldiers Creek through out our adulthood.
A genuine example of a Godly and family man. He'll be missed and remembered always.
