“ James was the best grandfather ever, and I had absolutely no doubts he viewed me as the best granddaughter ever.

When he became invalid, I helped my dad take care of him by feeding him pudding & M&Ms (he adored them), giving him drinks, giving him his medicine when he needed it, etc.

Jim was full of zest for life.

From serving in the Navy for 20yrs as a commander, being a logistics manager at Cape Canaveral Naval Station, being a father of two sons, and being a grandfather of two, he did it all.

He had loved baseball a lot, even playing the sport himself, his favorite team was the Yankees.

I'll miss you so much Papa
