

Janet W Giovanniello

July 11, 1948 - July 15, 2019

Janet Wilson Giovanniello passed away on Monday, July 15, 2019, at her home in Fairhope, Alabama.

Born Janet Elizabeth Wilson on July 11, 1948, in Prattville, Alabama, most of her childhood was spent in Prattville, but her adventurous spirit and career took her to many areas of the country. Jan was fearless and never afraid to make her own way. Among the nation's first female boiler crew foremen, she was a pioneer of the metal and industrial trades. A lover of the water, she was eventually drawn to the coast and moved to Fairhope in the early 1990s which is where she remained until her death. She treasured being "Janny" to her grandchildren more than anything. Her smiling blue eyes and sense of humor were a delight to all who knew her. Her adventurous, fearless, and selfless soul touched everyone she met.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Dorothy Yeargan Wilson and W.E. ("Bull") Wilson, Jr., her loving husband, Guy Gardener Bigger, and a step-son, Guy Gardener ("Bo") Bigger, Jr. She is survived by her daughters, Anna (Troy) Tindle of Fairhope, AL, and Mary Giovanniello of Fairhope, AL; grandchildren, Celeste ("Tessa") Roe, Sarah Tindle, Eris Giovanniello, Hannah Tindle, Reid Tindle, and Ava Kauss; a sister, Margaret (Dan) Wilson Burleson of Corvallis, OR, and a brother, W.E. ("Bullet") Wilson, III of Prattville, AL; and many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

A compassionate mother to her children, loving Janny to her grandchildren, devoted sister to her younger siblings, and an open set of arms to all, she was cherished and will be missed by many. In lieu of flowers, the family requests honoring her memory by loving others and spreading kindness.

A private memorial service will be held at a later date.

Arrangements are entrusted to Cason Funeral Service in Foley Alabama

“ When John and I moved to Fairhope, Jan welcomed us with open arms and an open heart. I regret not spending more time with her. She was a loving friend and neighbor. May she rest peacefully in the arms of the Lord.
