although we never met in life it's self, I considered you one of my closest friends even though we were separated by a vast ocean and continental divide. We knew each other for over 10 years through online gaming and became very good friends.

You were an inspiration to those who knew you and helping others even when you were not at your best was never too much trouble for you.

My condolences to Steve and the family and friends you leave behind. You will be missed by many and mourned by all. Heaven has a new bright and shining light beaming down on us all from this day forward.

Thanks for the memories and the time we shared over the past 10 years bonnie lass

Your Scottish friend

Today the World Lost a remarkable Woman. Jayne Doney or as so many people knew her Penny was one of the kindest souls and most understanding person I ever encountered on this planet. We met playing a very intense RPG on the internet about 13 years ago and We became Co leaders of a Group that had hundreds of members. She was always the much better player but she thought I must have something to offer as She always asked my advice. Though it sounds silly to people who do not play these games we developed a deep trust and a friendship from it. I tried to help her through her many Hospital stays and I got to talk and develop a friendship with her Husband Steve a wonderful and caring man and who worshiped the ground that Penny walked on. Penny was there for my Wife Diane when I was hospitalized two years ago for so many months. A better friend you could never have. We did not talk as much as I would have liked because of both of our Health conditions and busy schedules. THIS IS A LOVING WARNING. Never take Anyone for Granted that they will Always be there for you. Because someday you will call or receive a message like I did today and they will be gone from this Earth. Penny is not Gone from my heart she will always be there and I know we will meet on the other side because we did share a connection. She always wanted me to come down to her beautiful Gulf Shores home. She told me it was a place of healing and Diane and I would Love it. I am so sorry I never went. There is no excuse that I can make that would be good enough for not meeting and hugging my friend. So please do me the favor of hugging and telling your friends and loved ones that you Love them and cherish them every time you see or speak to them. You may never have the chance again. Penny was a Warrior in every sense of the word. Fate dealt her a bad hand Health wise but she did not let that stop her. She Loved her friends and family But especially her Husband Steve who stood by her and protected and cared for her. She will live in all who met her or encountered her I will miss you Jayne/Penny for as long as I live but I will never forget you or Steve. I want him to know that he can always call me or message me and that we consider him Family and always will. God Bless you Penny my Imperatrix/Queen (from our RPG) you will always be remembered and your good deeds told. One of her lasts requests from me is that I calm down and take care of myself and not to be so negative on posting political items. In her memory I will try REAL HARD. She also sent me an Ereader so that I can enjoy reading again. I promise that I will use it all the time to calm my mind and my soul. I miss you already so much and knowing that I will never get anther call or message from you is very hard. I Love you Jayne like the Sister I never had. Art (Count Yorga Imperator)
