

Jimmie D McClain

July 12, 2020

Jimmie D. McClain, 70, of Fairhope, AL passed away Saturday, July 11, 2020. He went peacefully surrounded by his dearest friend and caregiver, Jennifer Blackwood and her family. Jimmie was born April 5, 1950 in Selma, AL. He was a lifelong resident of Lake Martin. This is where he met the love of his life and wife of 35 years, Jane Atchison McClain. Jimmie's passion was chartering tourists and local residents as a fishing guide on Lake Martin. He and his wife Jane spent most of their time on the water, ballroom dancing and bowling. They shared a love story that many can only dream of.

During Jimmie's time in Fairhope, he loved visiting the American Legion where he met some of his favorite Fairhoppers and closest friends. If you saw Jimmie around town, you would expect that he would be sporting his favorite hat, boots and best attire. He took much pride in his appearance. Jimmie's smile could brighten any room, but his outgoing personality and huge heart were by far his best qualities. He loved football and was an avid Auburn fan, never missing a chance to cheer on his Auburn Tigers.

Jimmie left this world with an unconditional love for his four-legged children, Stubby and Holly. He will, however, be remembered most for his eternal love for his wife Jane.

There will be a celebration of life at the American Legion in Fairhope on Wednesday, August 5th from 6pm-8pm. We invite everyone who was blessed enough to know Jimmie, to come celebrate his life and share your best Jimmie stories. Rest in Peace sweet Jimmie!

Tribute Wall

NE

“ Jimmy was my 1st cousin, he was always sweet and good to me. I loved him so much, when he was a baby I carried him around on my hip. I'm 11 years older than him. So sorry to hear of his passing.

---

Neressa - May 11, 2023 at 01:42 PM