

John King

August 14, 2024

**Obituary for John K. King****

With heavy hearts, we announce the peaceful passing of John K. King, a devoted husband, father, craftsman and trailblazer in radio broadcasting, on August 14th, 2024, at his home in Foley, Alabama. By his side was his beloved wife of 58 years, Elizabeth Lynn King.

John's passion for radio broadcasting began at the age of fourteen when he started his first job at WROB, an AM radio station in West Point, MS and grew into a storied career that touched lives across six states.

John's impact extended beyond broadcasting. He made significant contributions as a home builder and Realtor in Jackson, MS, where his work earned him several awards from the Home Builders Association. His craftsmanship, whether in gardening, landscaping, or woodworking, reflected his attention to detail and his love for creating beautiful spaces. In his later years, he embraced his passion for cooking, working as a chef at assisted living facilities, bringing joy and comfort to many.

John is survived by his eldest daughter, Kim Stalcup of Fairhope, AL; daughter, Katherine King of Los Angeles, CA; son, William King of Estes Park, CO; sister, Dr. Linda King, and brother-in-law, Ray Abou-Elhosn of Sanford, FL; four grandchildren, Lauren Phillips of St. Petersburg, FL, Morgan Lindsey of Seminole, AL, Madison Lindsey of Robertsdale, AL, and John Avery King of Madison, MS; and four great-grandchildren, Everly Delgado, Micah Walker, Holden Phillips and Kyrie Robinson along with numerous cousins.

He was preceded in death by his son, John K. King II, and his parents, John A. and Agnes Brough King.

John's public Celebration of Life gathering will be held on September 28th, 2024, from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM at The Hilton Garden Inn, located at 320 New Manssdale Rd, Madison, MS 39110.
