“ I (We) have so many fond memories of John. He was always Uncle John to our kids and he took that role very seriously. He, Fannie, and all of us would go fishing, swimming, in fact he taught my kids to swim . We would cookout, Uncle John would dance around the campfire and he would sit and tell stories for hours. He was always one of the best storytellers of all time. I always told him he should have been a professor. To me and my family he was just a big ole teddy bear who loved people and Life. You will be missed and most of all you will always be Loved. Good Bye our dear friend.
