

Joycelyn Butterfield

December 21, 2023

Joycelyn Butterfield left us on December 21, 2023, at the age of 92. She passed away peacefully in her home in Foley, AL with family by her side.

She was born in Huntington, IN among four other siblings to DeLos and Thelma Fry.

Joycelyn (Joy) loved accounting and worked for several companies throughout her career. When she wasn't working, she would fish with her husband, sew, and during the holidays make pounds of her infamous fudge to share with family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband John Butterfield; her sister, Joan, Jacqueline, and brother Dean; her brother-in-law Jerry Hodgson and her grandson Dominic Lupica.

She is survived by her daughter Cheri Dike (Tim); her niece and nephews, Michael Hodgson (Steve Brown), Julie Hodgson (Chris Yamaya), Jeffery Hodgson (Martha Ongley), Kim Fry and Mark Fry; her sister-in-law Kay Cherry and her grandchildren Richie Lupica (Jennifer Tracy), C.J. Lupica and Hillary Anaya-Branson (Shawn Branson).

Joy's family would like to thank all the staff at Gentiva Hospice, Chris Avenger

(Kindred), Amedisys, and Fresenius Dialysis (Foley, AL) for all of their loving and compassionate care.

Cremation rites will be accorded. Per Joy's request, there will be no funeral services, but rather a celebration of her life, the date and time to be announced at a later date. Cason Funeral Services has been entrusted with Joy's arrangements.

Memorials may be made in Joy's memory to Best Friends (bestfriends.org).
