

Judith Ann Dionisio

February 1, 1941 - November 11, 2018

Judith Ann “JUDY” Dionisio left her earthly home on Sunday November 11, 2018 after an extended illness. Her spirit and character, dubbed “firecracker” or “spitfire”, allowed her to fight through many battles and hospitalizations in order to bless her family and friends with a few more years of her larger than life presence. Her personality awarded her the gift of never meeting a stranger nor forgetting anything she learned from that interaction. It is through these interactions that Judy will be remembered and cherished by so many.

Judy was preceded in death by her parents, ...Mr Truman and Mrs Genevieve Graham, her sister, Cindy Bodway, and brother, Truman Graham III. Her survivors include her children: Theresa (David) Cain, Annette Bucci, Rick (Leigh) Dionisio, Tony (Jessica) Dionisio. Siblings: Trudy Clark, Sandra Reaves and Debbie Fette. There are 6 grandchildren: Christopher (Amanda) Bucci, Renae (Ted) Tamas, Jamie (Matt) Stephens, Mitch Anthony, Gavin Dionisio,, Gabby Dionisio and 6 great grandchildren Payton, Kyleigh, Brayden, Brynna, Baylen and Brantley, as well as, many nieces, nephews, cousins and her very close friends Doris Ewing and Sue Byrne to cherish her memory.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to the staff at DaVita Dialysis Center Dr K Meyer, Amedisys Home Health (Jodi and Dan), Dr Garretson and staff and a multitude of other members of the medical community.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations in her memory be made to St Margaret of Scotland Catholic Church, 601 W Laurel Ave, Foley AL 36535 or “ Ms Judy I will miss you!! You were a firecracker. Even when you were sick you always had your hair fixed and makeup on. It was an absolute pleasure being your nurse for the last 2 years. Fly high with the angels and watch over all your friends and family. I love you and miss you dearly!!

“ I sure will miss you Judy. I guess I'll have to start watching tv to keep up with who's getting married, who's getting divorced, who's having babies, You always kept up with it and filled me in. Fly high with the angels, Judy. I love you.

“ One of my fondest memories of Judy is from many years ago when Delmar and I lived in Marino Courts and Judy and her family lived in the row of apartments across from us. I was younger than most of the people we knew but came from a big family and learned to cook at a young age and loved it. Many a day late in the evening just before supper time I would go to my door to see Judy standing there with a quart of milk and a bowl with the rest of the ingredients for homemade biscuits! She would say Cheeta, you don't mind do you? Just mix them up for me and I have time to put them in the oven before supper! Of course I didn't, I enjoyed her company she made me laugh! We will miss visiting with her at the Robinson's reunion. Sandra, you and your entire family are in our hearts and prayers, love you. Delmar and Cheeta Robinson
