Judith Ann Dudley

Judith (Judy) Ann Dudley, 78, passed away at home on Monday, June 5, 2023, after a long term illness. Judy was born in Chillicothe, Ohio on February 17, 1945, to parents Clyde Henry and Lorna Jean Brown. She lived in Chillicothe before moving to Loudonville, Ohio in her teen years. She graduated from Loudonville High School in 1963 and immediately joined the Air Force, being stationed at Eglin Force Base, Florida, where she worked as an Operating Room Technician. She married Kenneth Eugene Dudley on April 15, 1972, and lived in Bellville, Ohio, Mansfield, Ohio, and for the last 21 years in Foley, Alabama. Judy and Ken celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in 2022.

Judy is survived by her husband, Ken, and sons Camaron J. McCluggage of Hudsonville, Michigan and Kenneth A. Dudley of Mansfield Ohio; two granddaughters, Madeline McCluggage and Morigan McCluggage of Hudsonville, Michigan; and sister Dolores Christy of Chillicothe, Ohio. She was predeceased by her parents and a sister, Peggy Paulin.

Judy chose cremation in lieu of burial. No services are being planned at this time.
