

Judy Ikner

May 30, 2024

Judy W. Ikner, 79, of Robertsdale, passed away peacefully at her home on May 30, 2024. Judy was born January 2, 1945 to Fred and Alma Waddle. After graduating High School from Stone County High School In Mississippi, Judy moved to Alabama where she met Oscar L. “Bubba” Ikner, her husband of 30 years. On May 30th, the day of Judys’ passing, Judy and Bubba would have been married 60 years.

Judy worked for Vanity Fair for a number of years, but was best known for her career in banking where she served many of us as customers at the bank in the middle of town. It was in her career of banking that Judy displayed wonderful financial and problem solving abilities, along with her amazing people skills and welcoming smile. She was a member of Bethel Baptist Church for over 50 years serving in many capacities including Sunday School teacher, GA leader, and on various committees.

After marrying Bubba in 1964, Judy gave birth to Christy Michelle Ikner on March 22, 1970 and Monica Kay Ikner Williamson on June 4, 1971. Judy adored her grandchildren, Chesley Nicole Williamson and Jacob Harrison Williamson.

Judy was preceded in death by her spouse Bubba, her parents Fred and Alma, her brothers, Vernard, Richard “Billy” and Lonnie Waddle. She is survived by her two children and two grandchildren, her brothers, Freddie and Danny Waddle, two sisters, Donna Warden and Tammy Waddle. Judy’s sister and brother-n-law’s, nieces, nephews and cousins were all considered her close knit family and she loved each and every member.

“ Judy Ikner was my first Sunday School teacher when I started attending Bethel Baptist Church. I was a young mother with 3 small children at that time. Judy invested her time and love into me that forever changed my life! Shes home with Bubba and Jesus where she longed to be for a long time! Love you and your precious family!

“ I worked with Judy at a bank for a few years, she was always very pleasant. When I saw her, I would say "Judy, Judy, Judy" like Goober on The Andy Griffith show. And she would just laugh.
