3/16/1957 - 9/21/2019

Karen Lee Eddins passed away peacefully at Saad's Hospice Facility in Mobile, AL on September 21, 2019.

Karen was born in Mobile, AL but was a long time resident of Baldwin County. Karen was very artistic and had a love for all crafts. She was a lover of all things mystical magical, and fairytale. Karen was a lover and if you were her friend you were her family. Her door was always open with a loving heart and arms. She had 3 daughters but she had many children. Karen lived life to the fullest and life was never without adventure. She was wild, crazy, and fun! Anytime with Karen was a good time.

Karen loved the Lord and has gained her wings she always dreamed of. She is now able to walk, run, and fly and she is free from any pain or sorrow. She has joined our Bigdad in heaven and they will watch over us together until we all meet again.

Karen is survived by her mother, Roberta Leamaster Eddins, sister Lynn Evridge

(Raymond), three daughters Tiffany Shutt, Crystal Thomas, and Starlyn Laird, five grandchildren Salena Shutt, Sonny Dubuisson, Hannah Shutt, Dylana Hogue, and Emma Laird, one great grandson Landyn Resmondo, one niece Dianna Devery, one nephew Ron Devery.
