“ Karen was such a sweet and loving person. She truly loved all she met. If you were a friend she loved you all the more. She would be so happy knowing about all of the love and concern for us and her that everyone has poured out and blessed us with! She was such a blessing to us and all who knew her. She fought long and hard. She's no longer feeling bad and is resting easy with the Lord and all who have gone in before her. I love you big sis....always.

Love, Andrew
