“ Chuck and I met in college so there are so many memories, it's hard to pick one. One day in the early 70s Chuck and I went driving around, in a Volkswagon beetle, on some trails on a hunting preserve Glenda's parents managed. The trails were wet and muddy and rutted but we managed to not get stuck. We pull up in the backyard of the New's home to wash the mud off the car...and the car got stuck in the water puddle that resulted and we had to push it out!

And many really fun trips together...Among them the Knoxville and New Orleans Worlds Fairs.

One more... I was visiting Chuck and Glenda at their first home in Gulf Shores. Chuck and I went out fishing in the Gulf one day. We had some extra rods out and a fish hit one of them and dragged it overboard. A few minutes later I felt a tug on my line and started reeling in. That fishing rod was on my hook!! And the fish was still hooked on it! Chuck and I laughed, shook our heads and speculated what the odds of all that could be.
